

LIKE A BIRD IN THE AIR based on Phil. 4:1
By Glenn Pease

Like a bird in the air,
Like a fish in the sea,
I am in Christ,
And Christ is in me.

Like the moo in a cow,
Like the buzz in a bee,
I am in Christ,
And Christ is in me.

Just like yeast in the bread,
Like a spook in the tea,
I am in Christ,
And Christ is in me.

Just like sand in the box,
Like a swing in the tree,
I am in Christ,
And Christ is in me.

Just like blood in the veins,
Like water in the knee,
I am in Christ,
And Christ is in me.

Because I love Jesus,
All God's people agree,
I am in Christ,
And Christ is in me.

Phil. 4:1-7

There is one great Christian need,
And for this I ever plead,
That they all would learn to see
They on basics must agree.

When they differ in their view,
They need help to see it through
From those in the book of life
Not caught up within their strife.

CHORUS:

Rejoice in the Lord always,
And again I do repeat-
In this life's school hallways
Let no evil you defeat.

2.

Let your gentleness be clear,
For your Lord is ever near.
Do not worry what will be,
He can everything foresee.

So then go to Him in prayer,
And each request with Him share.
Offer Him thanksgiving too,
And His peace He'll give to you.

CHORUS:

Phil. 4:8

If its true, the thing to do
Is to with your mind pursue
Every angle, every view
Until your soul you renew.

If its noble, and its right
Make it pleasing in your sight.
Pray to have an appetite
For all things noble and right.

CHORUS:

You've just got to think about them;
Let them dominate your mind,
For everywhere you'll see a gem
Where most others will be blind.

2.

If its also very pure,
Its something you should prefer.
If you long to be mature,
Let what's pure your mind allure.

If its lovely to the eye,
And your senses satisfy,

Let this your mind occupy,
And it your soul edify.

CHORUS:

3.

If you see what you admire,
And it does your soul inspire,
Then never cease to aspire
Making it your desire.

Anything that's excellent
Pursue till your hearts content,
And be ever diligent
Not to waste an element.

CHORUS:

4.

If it's worthy of your praise,
And your mind it does amaze,
Never cease on it to gaze
Till it sets your soul ablaze.

This world is full of wonder;
There's no end to beauty here,
So please don't make a blunder;
Everything God makes hold dear.

CHORUS

Phil. 4:10-20

I have learned to be content
Whatever the circumstance.
I rejoice in what you sent
Now that you have had the chance.

I know how to be in need,
And from all need to be freed.
I can handle any want;
Nothing my content can daunt.

CHORUS:

Everything is possible

Through the Lord who gives me strength.
Nothing is impossible;
His grace goes to any length.

Glory, glory to our God.
Praise the Father forever.
He will provide as we plod
In all that we endeavor.

2.

I am so grateful to you
For giving to meet my need.
Such giving comes from so few;
Rarely do churches succeed.

Your gifts were a sacrifice
Pleasing to God and to me.
He will meet you needs in Christ.
Praise Him for eternity.

CHORUS:

Phil. 4:21-23

Greet all the saints in Christ Jesus;
Greetings from all brothers too.
All the saints who are with us
Send their greetings unto you.

There are those in Caesar's household,
Who have also become saints.
They in witness have become bold,
And served there without complaints.

CHORUS:

May the grace of our Lord Jesus
Ever be with your spirit.
May His grace forever free us;
Let us forever cheer it.
