

IT'S NOT I BUT SIN WITHIN ME
By Glenn Pease

1.

It's not I but sin within me
That compels me to be bad.
Oh from such bondage to be free
Is the deepest wish I've had.

In my flesh dwelleth no good thing,
Though to will good I have got,
But my flesh will not cease to cling
To the evil that says not.

CHORUS:

I'm a prisoner to my body.
What a wretched man I am,
But by grace I can be godly
Because of Jesus the Lamb.

I am carnal, sold under sin;
What I would do I do not.
My longings to do good within
Are undone by evil's plot.

In God's law I delight within,
But a civil war I find,
For in my flesh the law of sin
Makes great war against my mind.

ROMANS 7:1-6
By Glenn Pease

1.

Listen to this truth my brothers:
You are all dead to the law,
And now belong to another
Who is without any flaw.

Your first marriage was disaster,
But thank God you are set free.
Now you're married to the master,
And this calls for jubilee.

CHORUS:

We are now the Savior's bride,
Married to the Lamb of God.
We now have life's greatest guide
As on life's hard path we trod.

In Christ we are no longer bound;
The old has now passed away.
By a new love we have been found,
Whose love never will decay.

We no longer have to fear it,
Condemnation by the law,
For we now serve in the spirit
With fruit the old never saw.

THERE IS NOW NO CONDEMNATION
By Glenn Pease

1.

There is now no condemnation
For us who are in Jesus.
We are filled with jubilation,
For he from judgment frees us.

We walk not now after the flesh,
But we walk in the spirit.
Our inner man he does refresh
When his word speaks, we hear it.

CHORUS:

There is now no condemnation,
From the law we are set free.
We will praise him for salvation
Both now and eternally.

2.

For what the law could never do
Because our flesh was so weak,
God sent his son to take flesh too
To give hope where all was bleak.

For in his flesh he condemned sin,
And the law he did fulfill.
Now we can have his peace within
Because of Calvary's hill.
